RANI BAUG

Bilal school has organised a short Picnic to the Zoo for its little toddlers on 16th February, 2017. Students showed their excitement jumping cheering each other in the school. Students were called in the school by 8:00 am. Teachers took attendance of their students and left the school by 8:15am. Students entered the bus and again attendance was taken to make surety for students' safety. The bus set for its journey to Rani Baug. Students said poems, played quiz, Naats and Hamds in the bus. The bus reached its destination by 8:40am. Students gathered within the gate, again teachers took attendance to make sure that all were present. As they approached the main gate, they saw a huge crowd. Some people were buying entrance tickets, some were chatting while others were relaxing under the shady trees. They entered the zoological garden and came across a beautiful lake in which some aquatic birds like ducks and swans were swimming. As the teachers and students moved, they came to the enclosure in which flying birds were kept. They were sparrows, eagles and parrots to pigeons of various colours. The birds were chirping. They enjoyed it very much. In the next enclosure, there were Lions and Leopards, Tigers and Tigresses whose roars were deafening. After seeing them, they came across a garden in which stags and deer were roaming here and there. These animals were very beautiful. In one of the corners of the garden, there was a huge tree on which monkeys were jumping. Their tricks and pranks were very pleasing. Students and visitors who tried to tease the animals were strictly warned. Next was an aquarium in which students were most interested. Also a large number of aquatic birds were kept there. There were fishes of many species and colours. To see them swimming in water was really a delightful scenario. There were many other aquatic animals. Just by its side, we came across polar bears who looked sleepy and lonely. Some people offered him eatables which he gulped at once. After taking one complete round of the zoo, we relaxed for some time in a cool shade of the beautiful garden. The fragrance of the flowers was soothing. Then we had some snacks and drinks which refreshed us. Now it was time to leave. As the sun was setting, all the teachers and students came out of the zoo. Students enjoyed the thrilling experience of the zoo. They shall always remember the memorable experience in the zoo. Students boarded the bus by 5:20pm and the bus set for its departure. Students still played and enjoyed in the bus. They were sharing thrilling experience with each other. Bus reached the school by 5:45pm. Students entered the school. Parents were already present their to receive their kids. Teachers again took attendance to make sure that all have returned to the school safely. Teachers handed over kids to their respective parents. Students left the school with beautiful thrilling memories.
