ANNUAL FUNCTION (2017-18)

The school Annual Day is perhaps the function that we most eagerly await each year. Our school celebrated its Annual Day by organizing a grand Annual Function in the school Auditorium. All students, their Parents, Teachers and Staff and other respected invitees attended the function. The programme started upon the arrival of the Chief guest. This year too, school had begun to prepare well in advance. The teachers helped the school authorities to select the items to be put up and the practice began in the right earnest. As the final day approached, the excitement increased and preparations took on a hectic pace. On the day before the function, a full well prepared rehearsal was held in the same auditorium and everything went off very smoothly.

The function was to start sharp at 10:00 am. As the parents took their seats, the teachers went about making last-minute checks and adjustments. The proceedings began with welcoming speech delivered by the school Principal. Some of the events that took place, are clearly described.

Very first it was the comparing done by a student of Sr. Kg. followed by a group of Kg. students. It happened for the first time in history of stage performances, the stage which was always used to display worldly performances was used to perform small kids' performances. The whole auditorium went silent. The audience was struck at once. It was surprising for everyone to observe so small kids on stage. It was an eye catching moment. Besides, there was a short play of classroom skit. The students had prepared a variety of Naat, Hamd, Poems, Qirat recitation etc. Next was an Urdu song displayed by a group of Sr. kg students. They were appreciated by the audience for their melodious performance. Then few students performed a recitation followed by its translation in English, Urdu and Marathi. Few students displayed a Naat in a very pleasing tone with a slightly played drum sound.

As the curtains came down, everyone was requested to go to the grounds for refreshments and relaxation. Students performing on stage were distributed snacks by the school authorities.

Upcoming was the classroom skit performed by Pre Primary kids of Bilal School. The Senior K.G. students turned out to be excellent performers and their efforts were met with well-deserved applause. Next poem recited by Jr. K.G. student, then came a happy song sung by a group of students in their sweet charming voice. Next proceeding was Seerat-un-Nabi. It was displayed by a group of students. There was a huge round of applause for their performance. A Nursery student displayed Hurf-e-Tahajji trained by our hardworking Mudarriseen and last but not the least, an Islamic song on my mother was displayed describing our prophets message, our duties and obligations towards our mother, was presented in a sweet melodious tone. It stole the show.

Finally, the school played the National Anthem and and Hamd at the end. The function ended at 6:00 pm. Sweets and refreshment were served to all those present in the stadium. Arrangements were made for the students as well. Packets were made well in advance of biscuits, wafers, starters, burgers, samosas and fruities. Children were too hungry after the performances. Timely energy drinks and snacks were served to the students so that they don't exhaust. Students were made to sit and relax in separate cabins from where they could visualise the show as well. Teachers and admin staff were continuously busy in preparing the stages and the event as required. The spectators were enjoying the show.

As and when all the events got over, prizes were announced for the best performers following were the awards presented by our chief guest.

- * Best student of the year,
- * Best teacher of the year,
- * Best student for participating in extracurricular activities.
- * Best student for maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in class and school.
- * Best subject teacher of the year.
- * Best teacher for encouraging in English speaking
- * Best teacher for giving best outcome in result.
- * Best parent of the year,
- * Best admin staff of the year,

* Best 100% attendance award of the year.

All the events went on successfully. School chairman gave a short speech at the end. He thanked Chief Guest and all the other guests and requested audience to pray for the School's success. The atmosphere was relaxed and carefree as parents directly talked to our Trustee and Admin staff who were present till the end, to assist parents. The Annual Function ended with a short vote of thanks by our Principal, wherein he also announced next day as a holiday.
