A SCHOOL PICNIC

Picnic – the word brings joy in our heart. It makes us forget not only our worries for few hours but also gives us recreation and change from the monotony of our daily life. School picnic break the dullness of a student. Picnic put the student in a right mood after Days of drawing away on maths sums and learning geographic location in the world.

Our school also decided a picnic for the student. Different spots were suggested by the school staff. Because student of different age group were going for the picnic. Safety and entertainment was the priority of the school management. So before sending students for the picnic school management decided to visit the selected spot and personally check all the things to avoid any inconvenience. After along survey “YAZOO PARK” was the best spot for picnic. Bilal school organised a picnic on 19th December, 2019 for girls and 24th December, 2019 for boys.

Picnic dates were declared in the school calendar. After Diwali vacation students started asking teachers about picnic, they were eager to know the picnic spot. When the picnic spot was declared they became very happy. Everyone started planning. The recess time was their planning time.

Day before the picnic a meeting was held by the Chairman and instruction regarding the safety of the children was given. Teachers were instructed to be in school before the students. Everybody was asked to reach school at 6.30am and they did follow. First aid box was prepared. Extra packed water bottle was supposed to be carried in the bus. Snacks and cold drinks were served by the school. Teachers were instructed to look after the children who might have any problem in travelling and make them sit near the window and to engage all the students in any of the enjoying activities so that the travel get completed easily and conveniently.

Finally the picnic day arrived. Students were informed to come at 6:30am. Majority of the students came before time. Every was looking very excited. Actually picnic is one of the most enjoyable and amazing event of school life for what the whole school use to remain awaiting. Students were instructed to check all their belongings before leaving. The chairman of the school instructed students to be with their teachers explained them that they are going for enjoyment by breaking rules and by not following the instruction they will not only spoil their picnic but spoil every ones. Student promised him that they will follow all the instruction.

After the assembly, all the students formed a line. They took their belongings and went to sit in the bus. All the students were very excited to show up all their planning's right away from bus. A notification thing was that from the starting only the students showed an outstanding obedience.

Many of them came without breakfast to do it with their friends in the bus together. They started feeling hungry. After taking permission for the respective teacher they had had their breakfast. They share their snacks with each other.

After a journey of one and half hour they reached "Yazoo Park". They saw the park from distance and became happy. They packed their bag wore their shoes. Some students were sleeping because of being awoken for the whole night in the excitement of picnic. They woke them up.

When the bus halted in a queue they came down. Attendance was taken and bands were given. Then they moved inside the Yazoo Park. A room was allotted for keeping the bag and changing. After keeping their bags they went to washroom. Then they moved to the dining hall where they were served very delicious south Indian dishes. After the breakfast, groups were formed. With the incharge escort the teachers moved to the rides. Both teachers and students enjoyed all the rides. At 1:00pm break was given for lunch and other necessities. Then again students went back on rides.

At 3:30pm students & teachers went to water pool. They played in the water for nearly two hours. Splashing water on each other, swimming in the water and playing on slides and tunnel. Then they changed their dress and came back to bus. At the time of leaving, ice-cream was given by the park authority. We left the park reciting Dua and with happy memorize. And reached school at 9:00pm. Parents were present at school to receive their children. The students were first taken in school their attendance was taken and then they were hand over to their parents. Both teachers and students left school with sweet memories.

The students of Bilal School left their footprints in the experience of the owner and managers of Yazoo Park. The manager was surprisingly said to the Principal that many schools come here, but we have not seen in our entire career such obedient students.
